

Dr. James Fleming serves

as Director of Biblical Resources Study Center (BRSC), an ecumenical organization serving Christians around the world. He is also founder of the World of the Bible Archaeological Museum and Pilgrim Center, which operated at Ein Karem, Jerusalem until Spring 2006. Dr. Fleming has established a similar archaeological museum at LaGrange, Georgia which opened in June 2006. Dr. Fleming holds an Ed.D. degree from Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, and has taught classes in the School for overseas students at Hebrew University in Israel. He serves on the Editorial Advisory Board of Biblical Archaeology Review and has contributed articles to this journal and led many archaeological tours for the magazine. He has developed courses of study in historical geography and biblical history, uniquely tying the studies with the biblical text and emphasizing the wedding of theological/faith relationships. Teaching aids developed by Dr. Fleming are in use by theological institutions in Europe, Asia and Africa. As a cartography consultant to the Curriculum Department of the Israeli Ministry of Education, he has illustrated government textbooks teaching biblical history with maps and photography. Dr. Fleming works with the Israeli Ministry of Tourism instructing Jewish and Arab guides about important New Testament and Byzantine period sites.

The Meaning of Life in the Prophets

with emphasis on the coming Messiah

November 12-14, 2018

Advent: Waiting for the Lord

November 14-16, 2018

at Lake Junaluska, NC

A program by:

The Meaning of Life in the Prophets

with emphasis on the references to the coming Messiah

November 12-14, 2018

In this seminar we will study the Old Testament, coming to understand that it is not a metaphysical book. The Bible is a concrete book that does not just speak abstractly of things that are distant and far away. The prophets lived in an important time before Christ when, even then, they told of his arrival. The notebook we will reference in this seminar is "The Major Prophets" by Dr. James Fleming.

Topics include:

- ◆ The Assyrians came like a Wolf on the Fold
- ◆ Isaiah and the Good King Hezekiah
- ◆ Jeremiah's Doom and Hope
- ◆ Archaeology and the Last Days of Judah
- ◆ Archaeology and the Return from Captivity
- ◆ Reversal of Fortune Spirituality of the Return

Advent: Waiting for the Lord

November 14-16, 2018

Advent is a time of waiting with expectation for the coming of the Christ Child. Explore the wilderness of expectation, the faithfulness of Elizabeth and Zechariah and Simeon and Anna in their waiting, the backgrounds of Nazareth and Bethlehem, the women in Matthew's genealogy, and the unassuming side of God. The notebook we will reference in this seminar will be "Advent: Waiting For the Lord" by Dr. James Fleming.

Topics include:

- ◆ The Wilderness of Expectation
- ◆ Isaiah and the Wonderful Counselor
- ◆ Bethlehem, the Least of Judah
- ◆ The Insignificance of Nazareth
- ◆ Matthew's Women in the Genealogy of Jesus
- ◆ The Assuming and Unassuming Side of God
